

Wrestling With Discipleship book helps church leaders and evangelists make true Christian disciples combining the physical discipline of wrestling and the spiritual journey of discipleship.

Produced and published by Good Fight Ministries, it's the second book from their new book publishing division.

SIMI VALLEY, CA, January 26, 2024--Christian media company, Good Fight Ministries, has released its second book, Wrestling With Discipleship, to help foment a culture of discipleship in your church, youth group...or wrestling team!

The book's author, Pastor Chad Davidson, says Wrestling With Discipleship is a unique exploration of the intersection between the physical discipline of wrestling and the spiritual journey of discipleship. Through a blend of personal anecdotes and an exegetical analysis of Scripture, Davidson delves into fundamental questions related to discipleship, such as:

- What is discipleship?
- Who is qualified to make disciples?
- How can I make disciples?

...and other important questions.

Good Fight Ministries predicts the book will find an audience among Pastors, Youth Pastors, local churches, and anyone involved in the discipline of sports, such as wrestling.

The new book explains why Discipleship is one of the most misunderstood ministries in the church, whether we are discussing who is genuinely qualified to engage in the practice or how it should be applied. Considering it is one of the most important aspects of a healthy church and cultivating a personal relationship with Christ, we need to get this right!

According to Davidson, the entire mission of this book is to equip those in the church to understand the concepts of discipleship, effectively engage in the disciple-making process, and experience personal growth using real-life stories for the purpose of personal application.

PRAISE FOR WRESTLING WITH DISCIPLESHIP

"Chad Davidson is a bold truth proclaimer and defender, and discipleship is a much needed yet neglected subject. In his book, Wrestling With Discipleship, he brilliantly maneuvers in and out of God's Word as well as his wrestling expertise and shares personal stories leading to biblical principles of discipleship. An important voice for this generation, Davidson pins down a tough topic in this easy-to-read and understand book that is sure to benefit the body of Christ!"

– David Fiorazo, Author, Speaker, Pastor and Host of Worldview Matters

"Many 'modern Churches' ignore an important fact when it comes to the Christian path; We are in a spiritual war! We are in a fight or...a wrestling match. It's something that we need to contend for every day. In this book, Chad Davidson lays out a beautiful prescription of what that looks like and how to follow a Christian warrior's path. To God be the Glory!"

– Bryce Eddy, Host of The Bryce Eddy Show

"Wrestling With Discipleship is a terrific book that I'll read again and again. Chad is a wonderful brother in Christ and he's tackled discipleship with excellence. Paul told Timothy that physical training is good but training in godliness holds promise for this life and the next. This book will give you the spiritual training necessary. Jesus commissioned us as believers to make disciples and anyone who really grasps the Biblical truths of this book will be armed and ready to knock the enemy down and finish the good fight. I also loved Joe Schimmel's cameo chapter too. It's packed with scriptures, great quotes from heroes of the faith, and personal stories. It's a must read for every serious Christian who wants to wrestle with discipleship!"

– Ben Price, Audacity Films, The Pilgrims Progress, Comedian/Impressionist and CEO of Bought With A Price
